Dear Renata B. Hesse:

I am very disappointed in the way the Department of Justice settled the Microsoft anti-trust case. What disappointed me most about the settling of this case was the the Department of Justice (DOJ) did not work to seek a remedy that all the suing States accepted. It's my opinion that since the DOJ partnered with the State's to sue Microsoft for anti-competitive practices, then the DOJ should have followed though by creating a settlement that all participants could back.

Sincerely,
